Frank Fish

Frank Fish began his business career managing concerts and events for Ambassador Auditorium, a Southern California premier concert venue. While working with the non-profit, Ambassador Foundation, Frank was introduced to, and developed a friendship with, a unique educator, cultural liaison and business entrepreneur, Dr. Richard Liu, Panda North America. Together they created a number of ground breaking exchanges between China, Canada and the United States.

The China cultural work led to the formation of Travel Gallery Inc. where Frank Fish serves as President. Major projects have included the 1985 visit of Her Majesty Queen Sirikit of Thailand to California, the first US tour of the Little Ambassadors of Shanghai, and the full charter of Holland America's flagship, the MS Rotterdam.

Travel Gallery currently has a family of brands that include Cruising Holiday and Tours, Great Western Tours, Panda North America and Taking Music Everywhere. Over the course of 35 years these entities have supported travel, tourism, adventure, education, exchange, religious pilgrimage and performance tours. The firm's professional associations include Airline Reporting Corporation since 1989, IATAN International Airlines & Travel Agent Network since 1989; NTA - National Tour Association.

Personally he has hosted cruises and planned and escorted major tours for churches, college & high school music ensembles and community groups to the People's Republic of China, Japan, Italy, England, Scotland, Slovenia, Austria, Russia, Israel, Turkey, Costa Rica, Croatia, Slovenia, Greece, Egypt, Thailand, and various countries in Africa. His community involvement and volunteerism is expressed through the United Church of God, Pasadena Rotary and Rotary International.

Charlie Brodie

Charlie Brodie was a high school band director for 35 years – first at Hanover High School in Hanover, Pa (16 years) and then at Woodward Academy in Atlanta, GA (19 years). During this time his bands consistently received superior ratings in concert, jazz and marching settings, performed at state music conferences, received numerous awards (including Bands of America Regional and National championships), appeared on national television, and toured extensively – both domestically and internationally.

Since 2002, Charlie has served as our Music Director Liaison and in addition to coordinating travel for bands to the Pasadena Rose Parade, The Midwest Clinic, and numerous other domestic destinations, Charlie has also arranged international performance tours to Australia, China, Central America and Europe.

Mr. Brodie earned B.S. and M.Ed. degrees from West Chester University and holds memberships in the Music Educators National Conference, Georgia Music Educators Association, and National Band Association. Mr. Brodie is also a performing member of Tara Winds, a member of the International Bandmasters Fraternity Phi Beta Mu, and in 2008 was inducted into the Cavalcade of Bands Hall of Fame.
